An individual named Daniel Pocock, apparently using the pseudonym Anja Xhakani, has been harassing the Debian community and apparently now seeks to use the OSM-talk list to continue harassment. The moderators have received multiple complaints about this post: <https://lists.openstreetmap.org/pipermail/talk/2022-July/087645.html> A second post has also been brought to the moderators' attention: <https://lists.openstreetmap.org/pipermail/talk/2022-July/087647.html>

In addition, the moderators have been made aware of additional information about Daniel Pocock:

The person's intent of posting this issue in every opensource group is not good in my point of view. Also the confirmation from Debian group about his activities is an indication that he will not stop if temporarily banned
